

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel Jesus speaks about prayer of petition, asking God for what we need (as opposed to just what we want or would like to have). The Gospel is a parable about a judge and a poor widow who is seeking justice. The point is that if even a totally corrupt person who cares neither for God nor man can be made to yield to the pestering of a totally defenseless and resourceless widow, how much more will a loving and caring God take care of His children? The lesson then is to keep on asking.

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.
